BEACH 1: SARA KINIKO BEACH, GREECE

Feel like you have been everywhere? Want to go somewhere new and fun? While European summer vacations may be the norm, this time, head for one of the lesser known isles like Milos. Often coined the "Moon Beach" these unique landscapes are something out of a sci-fi movie for sure! With a beaming adventure tourism industry, take an ATV ride across the island or rent your own boat to explore every little nook and cranny yourself! Still enjoy your Greek favorites with delicious meals by the sea.

BEACH 2: GOVERNOR'S BEACH, TURKS AND CAICOS

Looking for the unique getaway where you literally don't have to lift a finger? Book a villa in The Turks and Caicos. This place is a Caribbean dream with some of the clearest water in the world! This is definitely the place to come and do nothing. With a remote location, you could spend all tan tanning on the beach and never see another soul. Ideal for a lux retreat with many resorts offering all-inclusive plans and spa packages. Just imagining that white fluffy robe now! Heaven on Earth!

BEACH 3: BORACAY, PHILIPPINES

If you have a little adventure family that loves to travel, then this is your beach! Southeast Asia is pretty light on the budget making it a fun, far-off destination for your family to explore. Set alerts for deals on flights and any family, no matter how big or small, could make this work!

The Philippines are a postcard location with numerous beaches to explore. Cliff dive, snorkel, or island hop while creating family memories for a lifetime.

BEACH 4: SEMINYAK, INDONESIA

Dreaming of a far-off getaway for your honeymoon or romantic escape but still balling on a budget? Bali is your paradise! With insanely inexpensive resort and villa-stays available, the most expensive part of your trip will be your flight!

Bali caters to the backpackers and adventure travelers so expect to see a lot of expats and surfers. This melting pot is what gives Bali its unique vibes that will make you fall in love. Escape to a treehouse hideaway in the jungle to get some real "alone time".

BEACH 5: REETHIRAH, MALDIVES

If you have NO budget and want to go to the most ideal, perfect beach destination in the world, head to the Maldives. Splurge on an overwater bungalow but don't miss out on the beach bungalow, too. Many of them are MASSIVE and have added luxuries since they are built on land. With so many different islands to choose from, choose a resort that will cater to your lifestyle. If you love adventure, make sure your resort includes watersports and plenty of excursion options. If you want to relax, find a resort with a stellar spa!

BEACH 6: WHITEHAVEN BEACH, AUS.

A place worth the lengthy plane ride, Australia is one of the most diverse countries in the world! Make sure to stop in Sydney and hit a city beach before jetting up to the Whitsundays!

This island chain sits just below the Great Barrier Reef, an absolute bucket list place! Whitehaven Beach has some of the whitest sand in the world so make sure to stop by. Want to do something really special? Book a helicopter ride over the reef and make sure to bring your camera. These are sights you are going to want to remember!

BEACH 7: MIAMI BEACH, U.S.A.

Stuck State-side but still dreaming of a tropical getaway? Hit the hottest city in the world, Miami Beach! Known for the lux resorts, barely-there bikinis and Latin vibes, this is your beach if you are looking for some fun in the sun! Party with celebrities 'til the wee hours then watch the sunrise on South Beach. Don't think Miami is just for the rich and famous, though. This place is full of family-friendly activities like paddle boarding in Biscayne Bay, snorkeling Key Biscayne, or taking in the tropical fauna in Coral Gables.

BEACH 8: EXUMA CAYS, BAHAMAS

Don't have the budget or patience to travel far away from home? This is your beach! Just a short plane ride from Florida, you will feel a million miles away! These Cays are full of sandbars and tiny beaches (some full of famous swimming pigs!) This place is a ocean-lover's paradise with even more to see underwater than above! Still a rather remote location, make sure you are ready for any adventure! If you prefer luxury, don't worry! There are a few world-renowned resorts in the area that will cater to your every need!
